The symbol of bonding—our logo

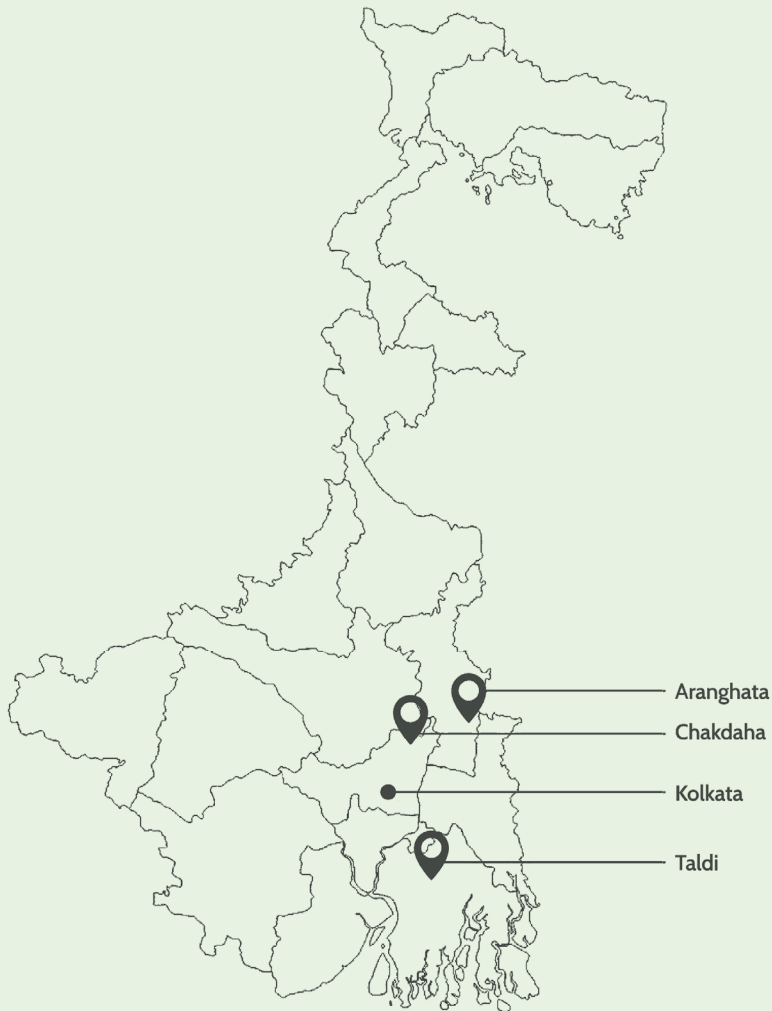

Ever since its inception in 2001, Bandhan has been committed to furthering its goal of socio-economic advancement in the lives of the less privileged. In all that Bandhan does, the attempt is to enable the beneficiaries to realise their true potential and level up their lives and that of their families and communities. This is what the new visual identity of Bandhan aims to establish.

- The outer ring represents the core beneficiaries of the various development programmes that Bandhan runs. The green base of the logo represents the inherent potential that they have in transforming their lives.
- The colours yellow, orange and red represent the igniting of the potential that Bandhan enables. These come together to represent the flame that has been Bandhan's identity all these years. As the beneficiaries, improve their lives, they, in turn, have been able to transform the lives of their families and the community and this is represented by the second ring.
- The innermost symbol, includes a palm and a leaf. The palm represents Bandhan, its donors and its people, who extend support to the beneficiaries and their journey of transformation. The leaf is a symbol of sustainability, the cornerstone of anything Bandhan.
- Our tagline signifies our exuberant task in realising the true potential of children. The Bandhan School strives to reach every remote household to ignite the light of knowledge and wisdom.
